more than a billion people watched the 9 11 world trade center destruction unfold on television making it the greatest shared event in world history reflecting this fact the 2003 world trade center memorial design competition was open to anyone drawing 5 201 entries from 60 countries all of which were posted online most designs were the greyscale hardscape of typical memorials a few were radically imaginative some engaged memory with sound color movement technology or visitor participation others reached across the globe cyberspace even outer space these imaginings stirred questions about their creators who were they what were they thinking and feeling how did the concept develop this book based on a first ever review of the entries tells the personal stories of more than 180 designers whose creative perspective translated an horrific event giving deeper thought to the relation of memorial spaces to history geography technology and cultural diversity news organisations are struggling with technology transitions and fearful for their future yet some organisations are succeeding why are organisations such as vice and buzzfeed investing in journalism and why are pedigree journalists joining them why are news organisations making journalists redundant but recruiting technologists why does everyone seem to be embracing native advertising why are some news organisations more innovative than others drawing on extensive first hand research this book explains how different international media organisations approach digital news and pinpoints the common organisational factors that help build their success never have financial markets been subjected to a period of change as rapid and extensive as took place from the 1970s onwards in the 1970s global financial markets were controlled by governments compartmentalized along national boundaries and segregated according to the particular activities they engaged in this all disintegrated in the decades that followed under the pressure of market forces global integration and a revolution in the technology of trading one product of this transformation was the global financial crisis of 2008 which exposed the fragility of the new structures created and cast a long shadow that we still live in today the response to that crisis has shaped the global financial system which has been tested once again by the coronavirus pandemic however none of the outcomes of this transformation were inevitable despite the forces at work they were the product of decisions taken at the time for a multitude of reasons banks exchanges and regulators were faced with unprecedented challenges and opportunities as a revolution swept away traditional ways of conducting banking the methods used to trade in financial markets and the rules and regulations employed to enforce discipline in this book ranald c michie provides an authoritative and unrivalled account of this upheaval based on a careful and exhaustive reading of the financial times over the last four decades using it to provide a source of material unmatched by any other in terms of depth and coverage by studying what happened and why in real time it is possible to explain the decisions taken that shaped the course of the transformation and its repercussions
